What was your motivation for choosing to participate in our governance system?

I wanted to be a part of an active committee where I could see and feel the differences we were making.

Awareness of Diversity.

College service committment to committee subject

To contribute to the goal of creating and maintaining a culture of respect and a celebration of differences at NSCC.

To improve the institutional culture

Fostering a climate of respect for diversity is key to the College mission

It is an opportunity to be actively participate in a specific area of interest to me.

to bring change to NSCC

Opportunity to shape the environment and offerings

Felt it was a good opportunity to be involved in college decision making .. also, a means to working with people from other departments and campuses I would not ordinarily meet
